The Parlement of Foules has been Bremen University's English-language drama group for 19 years. In order to commemorate the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death, the Foules are performing Twelfth Night, a comedy characterised by the interplay of light and dark, joy and melancholy. This production transports the action to a time shortly after the First World War and sets the songs of the Bard's script to music that anticipates the upcoming Roaring Twenties.
